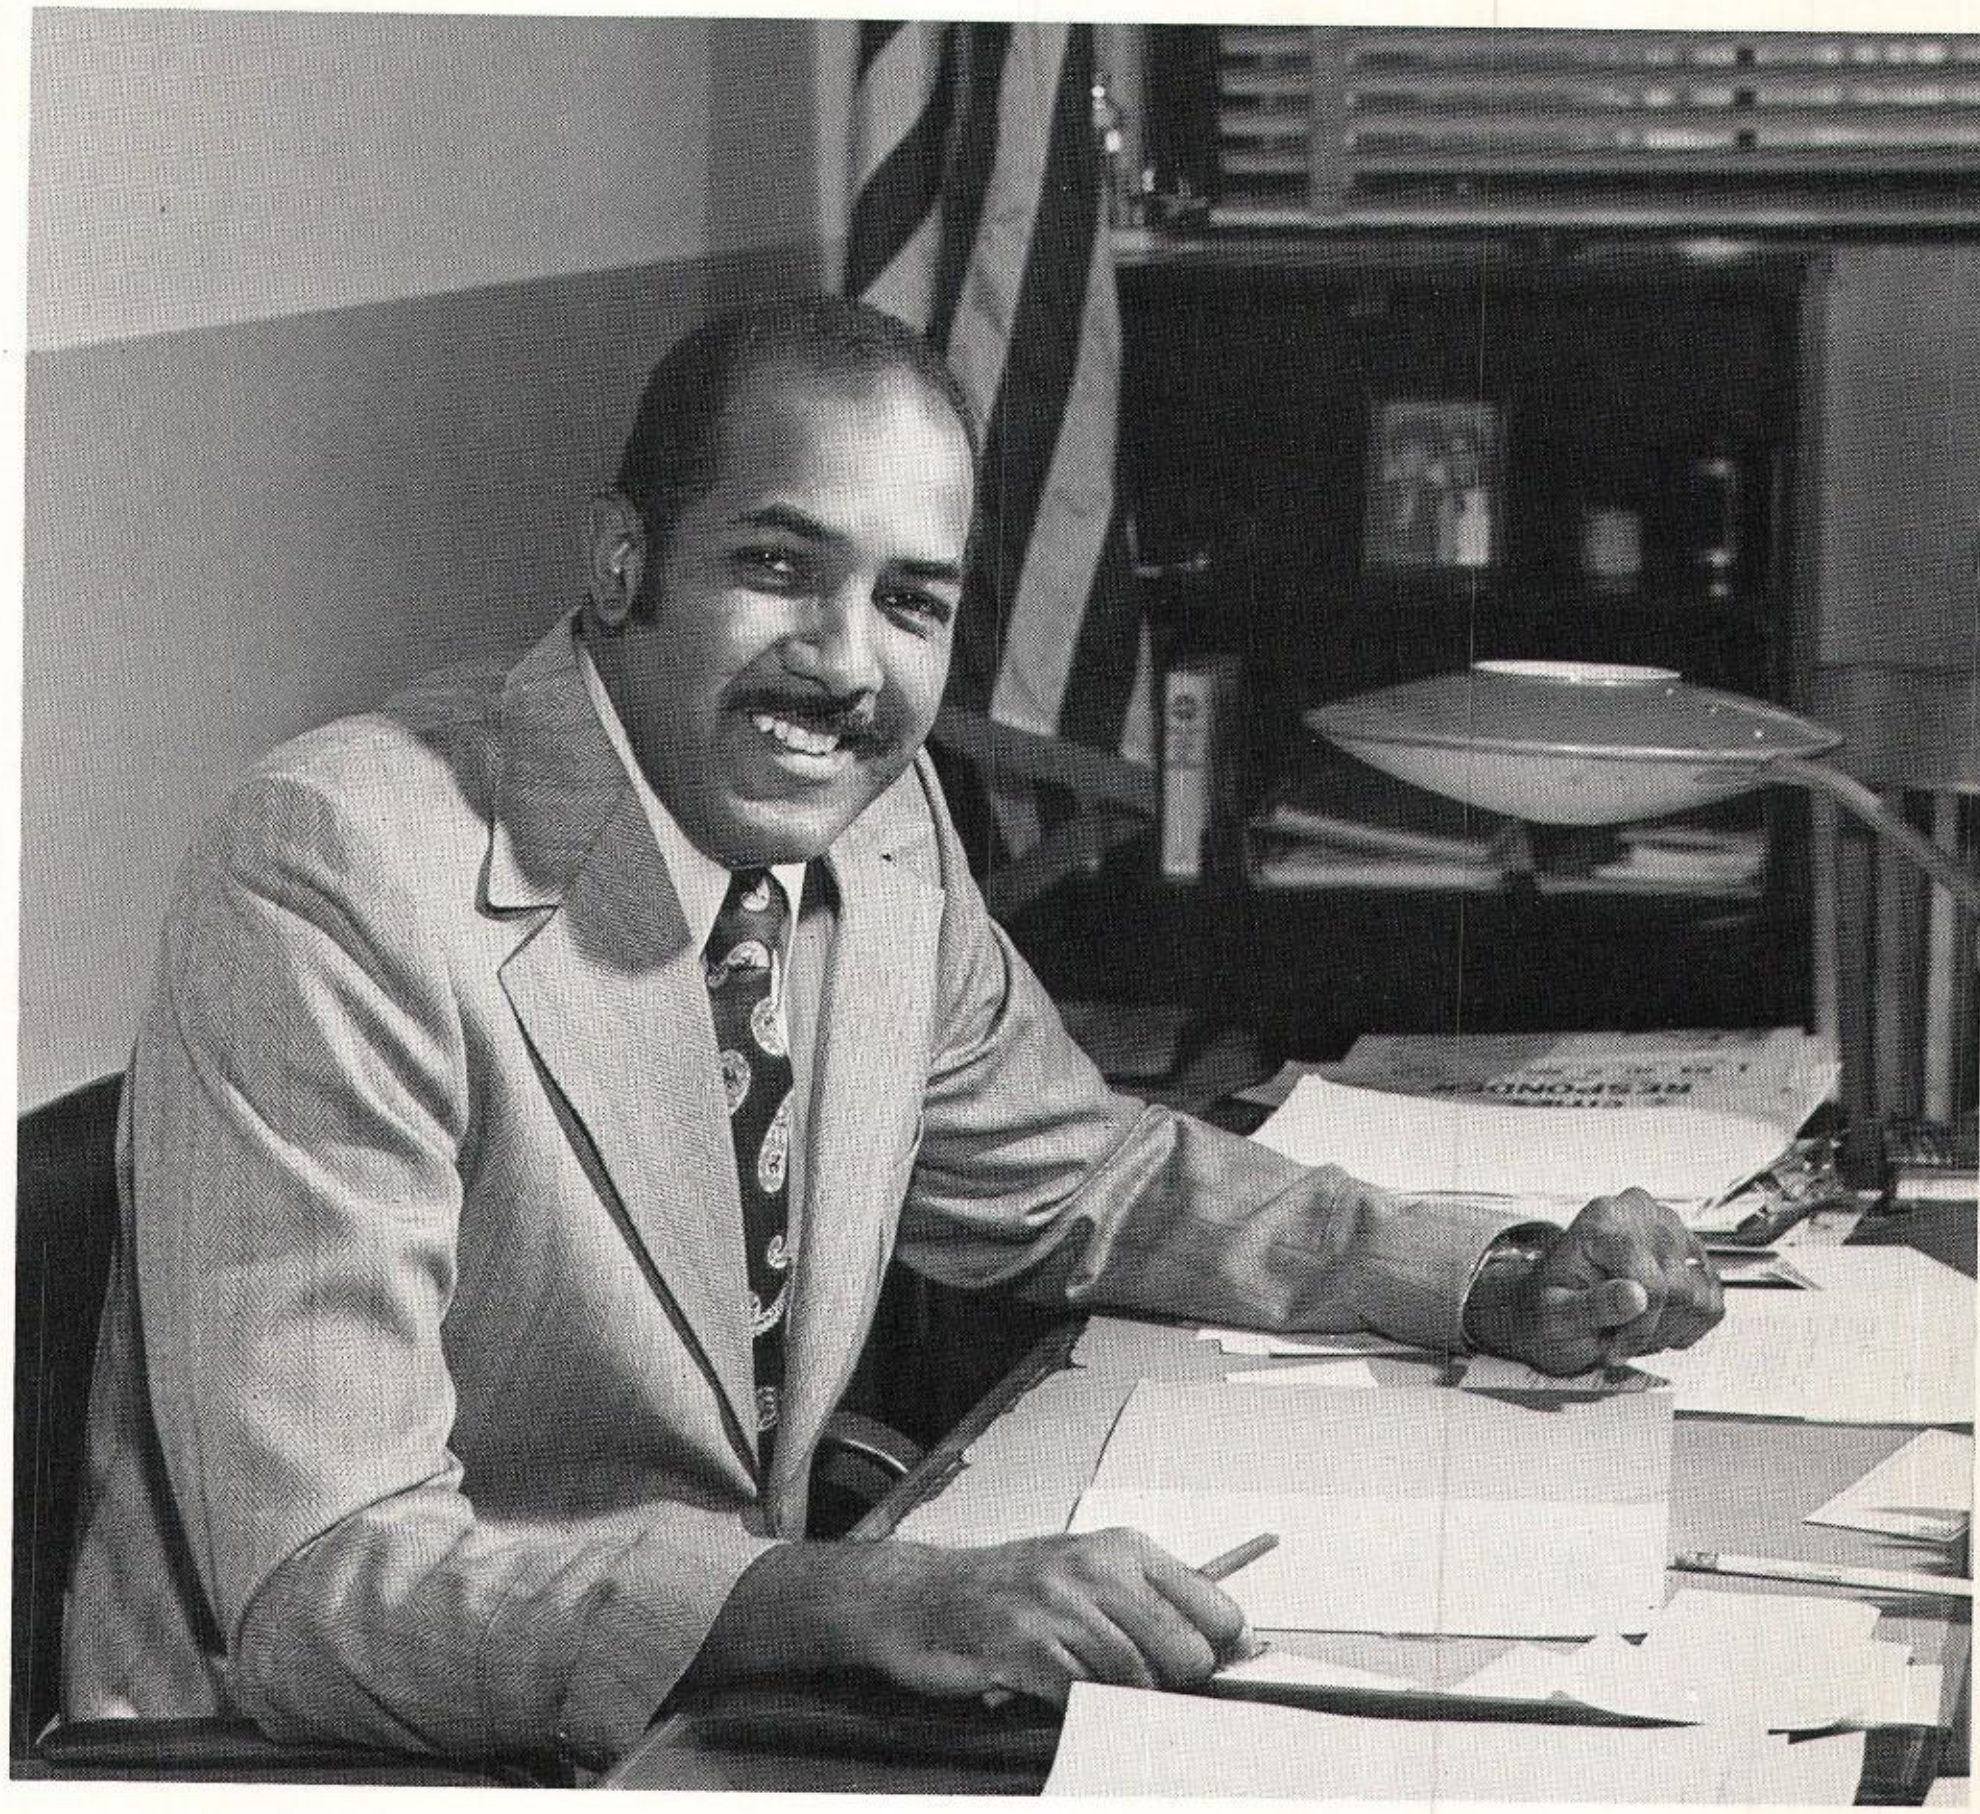
Mr. Harvey R. Sims came to North as Head Football Coach and Teacher after having served in the same capacity at Haynes High School. Mr. Sims' great achievements will continue to serve as an inspiration to the many students whose lives he helped to mold, to give to the world the best that they had.

We, the members of the 1972 Graduating Class are indeed happy to dedicate our ANNUAL to you. BEST WISHES AND GOOD LUCK!

Mr. Everett Walker served as Assistant Basketball Coach at North having been transferred from Meigs High School where he served as Coach, Science Teacher and Sponsor of the ANNUAL. He was well respected and admired by all who knew him.

To you, Mr. Walker, we the members of the 1972 Graduating Class say "Thanks" and wish for you a most successful future in your new endeavor. We are indeed happy to dedicate our ANNUAL to you. BEST WISHES AND GOOD LUCK!



Mr. R. W. Elliott

PRINCIPAL'S MESSAGE TO THE SENIORS -

One of the more thought provoking titles to be found on today's bookshelves is "Don't Sleep Through the Revolution," by Paul Rees. The author reminds us that Rip Van Winkle slept through the Revolutionary War and suggests that many individuals today are asleep while revolution rages around them.

Revolution is defined as complete change. Ideally, change for the better - progress. The period in which we live is characterized by change. The people of the world are called upon to provide the moral, spiritual and intellectual force required to solve the problems facing mankind. We, the citizens of the greatest country on this earth must provide the leadership, if the quality of life in this country and the world are to be acceptable.

The goal of education, according to Albert Einstein is to develop the ability for independent thinking and judgment. Paul Rees would say our goal should be to wake up those who are sleeping. In my mind, mental dexterity required to make a positive contribution to our changing society.

I am proud of our North High Family and the progress we are making toward these goals.

I wish for each of you - not an easy life, but the strength to meet every challenge.

R. W. Elliott, Principal
